GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

The Transit.

[illegible], May 7.—Dispatches from all over [illegible] the transit of Mercury was [illegible] to-day, generally with satisfactory [illegible], confirming previous observations for [illegible] of perihelion of Mercury.

The Bankrupt Print Mills

Fall River, May 7.—The stockholders of [illegible] mill to-day heard a report showing [illegible] corporation's net indebtedness to be [illegible], besides other small debts amounting [illegible] $00,000. There is a deficit, more [illegible] $110,000 in deposit on account [illegible] are $1,020,001.

Fire at Bradford, Pa.

[illegible], Pa., May 7.—A fire started in a [illegible] here this afternoon, and the [illegible] over two acres of the business [illegible] of the city. A large hotel, livery [illegible], oil offices and dwellings [illegible]. A hundred thousand dollars [illegible] of property was destroyed.

[illegible] Successful—Negroes Killed

[illegible], T. C., May 7.—The regular Dem[illegible] tickets are everywhere vic[illegible] radicals, disorganizing inde[illegible] and bolters. [illegible] Veldon resulted from a dispute [illegible] right to vote. Words then [illegible] E. L. Emery was struck on the [illegible] badly hurt. Eight or ten shots were [illegible] rioters. John Purnell, a ne[illegible] shot in the mouth and died in five [illegible]. Another negro was wounded in the [illegible]. All is now quiet.

The [illegible]—Still in the Dark

[illegible], Me., May 7.—No significance [illegible] to the visit of the Cimbria or [illegible] of the Union Pacific and Lake Shore [illegible]. They only come upon the rumor [illegible] Russians were destined for the Pa[illegible]. They could get no hint from the [illegible] any such intention and returned [illegible] any more knowledge of the Russian [illegible] than has already been telegraphed. The [illegible] British steamer had been out [illegible] unfounded.

The only trace of British espionage is the [illegible], and the feeling here is so intense [illegible] no one seems inclined to talk with [illegible]. He expresses surprise that the U S [illegible] has not a cutter here on watch [illegible] to watch, other than a German steamer flying the German flag at anchor [illegible] only passengers on board. The ships [illegible] the Russians simply as passen[illegible]. [illegible] passengers are carried as pleasure [illegible] and steerage passengers are classed [illegible]. Among other prominent offi[illegible] Alexejeff, Lieut Arclan, Baron [illegible], M. Ivanoff, M. Slavinsky and [illegible].

Police Commissioner.

New York, May 7.—Mayor Ely has nomi[illegible] Jones of the Times for police com[illegible].

Bonds Taken.

New York, May 7.—The syndicate has sub[illegible] additional five millions 4½ per [illegible], making twenty-five millions [illegible] fifty million contract.

News from Sitting Bull.

[illegible], May 7.—Frank Grouard, Gen[illegible] scout and guide, with a detail [illegible] from the 5th cavalry arrived [illegible]. They came out from Fort [illegible] in quest of a gang of horse thieves, [illegible] tracked to within 40 miles of this [illegible] the trail was lost. Grouard states [illegible] was gained from straggling [illegible] Indians to the effect that a [illegible] Sitting Bull's band has crossed [illegible] into the United States, and [illegible] very likely that the Indians would [illegible] during the coming sum[illegible] vicinity of the Missouri river.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Bond Subscriptions.

Washington, May 7.—The secretary of the [illegible] invites subscriptions to the four per [illegible] loan upon the same terms as offered to [illegible] public in July, 1872, namely: subscribers [illegible] deposit of 4 per cent., will be al[illegible] to complete payment. At the [illegible] of 90 days the bonds will be issued [illegible] of 98 per cent principal and [illegible] to date, and one fourth of [illegible] commission of all subscriptions [illegible] over will be allowed.

[illegible] the Neutrality Laws.

[illegible], May 7.—Gen. McDowell has [illegible] to institute vigilant watchful[illegible] the southern border of Arizona [illegible] California to prevent a viola[illegible] neutrality laws by Lerdo revolution[illegible] all persons suspected of con[illegible] on the border for that purpose. [illegible] notified the war department that [illegible] such a distribution of the force [illegible] command as will, in his judgment, [illegible] co-operation of other federal officers [illegible] officials prevent any serious vio[illegible] neutrality laws. He has direct[illegible] arrest of all suspected persons [illegible] attempt to cross from the United [illegible] Mexico. His action has been ap[illegible] headquarters in this city.

Journalistic Dinner.

Washington, May 7.—A number of jour[illegible] representing leading newspapers [illegible] entertained this morning at [illegible] Justin E. Colburn, many years cor[illegible] of the New York Times, who [illegible] for the City of Mexico to [illegible] duties as consul general of the [illegible].

Financial Success.

Washington, May 7.—Assistant Secretary [illegible] a dispatch announcing an [illegible] subscription by the syndicate while [illegible] cabinet meeting. The telegram [illegible] of much congratulation and [illegible] general regarding the favor[illegible] national finances.

Bill Signed.

Washington, May 7.—The president signed [illegible] the act to aid in the con[illegible] railroad and telegraph line [illegible] river to the Pacific ocean.

The Chinese Question.

Washington, May 7.—The senate commit[illegible] foreign relations to-day decided to re[illegible], the adoption of a con[illegible] resolution, taking the ground that [illegible] provisions which allow unrestrict[illegible] Chinese immigration to this country might [illegible] modified, and inviting the attention [illegible] to the subject. This concur[illegible] resolution will be reported as a substi[illegible] Senator Sargent's joint resolution.

[illegible] Wants his Vindication.

New York, May 7.—The Graphic's Wash[illegible] special says: An autograph letter from [illegible] has been received here sa[illegible] congress will be guilty of neglect of [illegible] if it does not investigate the Florida [illegible].

Another Bill for the Railroads

Washington, May 7.—A bill to alter and [illegible] the laws relative to the filing of re[illegible] of the Pacific railroad companies and [illegible], introduced to-day in the [illegible] by Thurman, repeals section 20 of the [illegible] railroad act of June 25th 1868 and [illegible] the office of auditor of [illegible] as one of the bureaus of the interior [illegible]. The bill provides that the [illegible] shall prescribe a system of accounts [illegible] any Pacific railroad company having re[illegible] aid from the government that neglects [illegible] refuses to furnish the accounts required by [illegible] auditor shall forfeit for each offense [illegible] $1000, and a continuance for six months [illegible] of such neglect or refusal shall work [illegible] forfeiture of all rights and privileges granted [illegible] the company by the United States.

Probable Fate of the Tariff Bill

The vote by which the house to-day agreed [illegible] take up the tariff bill for consideration [illegible] another strong indication that it will be [illegible]. The motion had a majority of only [illegible] vote, and among those voting in the affirmative were several members like Kelley of Pennsylvania who are bitterly opposed to its passage.

The Anti-Chinese Resolution

Washington, May 7.—Another step toward action on part of the federal government for restriction of Chinese immigration was taken in congress to-day by the unanimous agreement of the senate foreign relations committee to recommend the adoption of the following concurrent resolution:

Resolved, by the senate, the house of representatives concurring, that the provisions of the existing treaty between the empire of China and the United States allowing unrestricted immigration to this country from China might easily be modified so as to subserve the best interests of both governments, and the attention of the executive is respectfully invited to the subject.

This resolution was subsequently reported and placed on the calendar to await action in its regular order. Although not so direct and emphatic as Sargent's joint resolution, nor as positive as could be wished in its phraseology, its adoption will undoubtedly effect the same purpose, and there is reason for congratulation that this much has been obtained from so difficult a committee, which includes among its members some senators who previous to this have been fixedly opposed to taking any action on the Chinese question. Several members of the senate committee were desirous of reporting Sargent's bill, or some equally practical measure, to-day, but on reflection agreed that it would be better to harmonize with their colleagues and make the report unanimous, especially in view of the fact that President Hayes is known to be ready to institute the desired negotiations without urging.

Arguments against the S. P. R. R.

The senate military committee to-day heard Vice President Brown of the Texas Pacific railroad company in opposition to the bill granting authority for the construction and maintenance of a railroad across the Fort Yuma reservation by the Southern Pacific company of California. He attempted to show that such authorization would infringe upon the chartered rights of his company. General Huntington will reply at the meeting next Tuesday.

Railroad Accepted

The president to-day formally accepted the last completed section of 4 miles of the California and Oregon railroad, ending at Redding, and a patent for the land grant will soon be issued.

Postal Route and Breakwater

Washington, May 7.—Sargent to-day introduced a bill for the establishment of a post route from Milton to Los Angeles, and presented a petition of citizens of Santa Barbara praying a survey with a view to determine the advisability of constructing a breakwater for that harbor.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Repairing the Tuilleries.

Paris, May 7.—The Tuilleries commission has resolved to recommend the restoration of that ruined palace at a cost of about four million francs and an appropriation of it to a museum of modern art. The chambers will be asked to sanction the scheme.

French Elections

Paris, May 7.—Supplemental elections held yesterday for members of the chamber of deputies caused by invalidations of previous elections resulted in the return of six Republicans and two Conservatives.

Smallpox.

London, May 7.—The commissioners of the smallpox asylums report that this disease is epidemic here as strong as it was a year ago, there being now 850 cases.

Must give up Salary or Recant.

Berlin, May 7.—Contrary to the expectations raised by the recent conciliatory attitude of the papacy, those Prussian priests in receipt of government stipends have been asked by Cardinal Caterini, prefect of the congregation of the sacred council, either to renounce their salaries or declare their opposition to ecclesiastical laws.

Bismarck's Substitute.

Berlin, May 7.—Count Von Bulow, secretary of state for foreign office, is gazetted as the official substitute for Prince Bismarck in the department of foreign affairs, Admiral Von Stosch in matters connected with the navy, and Dr Stephan in the administration of posts and telegraphs.

Resolved to Strike

From 6000 to 7000 cloth workers in Holmfirth district and Huddersfield have resolved to strike in consequence of notice of a reduction in wages.

Paris Exposition.

Paris, May 7.—Eighty thousand persons visited the exhibition Sunday.

A General Lock-Out Probable

London, May 7.—A meeting of masters, cotton spinners and manufacturers held at Manchester unanimously resolved to issue a circular to mill owners throughout the strike district recommending that mills still open be closed to-morrow, and advising that no individual arrangement for opening mills be made with workmen. The adoption of this resolution caused great anxiety at Manchester, as it is believed it will render a general lock-out inevitable.

MEXICO.

Attempt to Oust Diaz.

Galveston, May 6.—A News special says: An attempt was made by revolutionists to oust the Diaz government of Chihuahua, but it resulted in failure. A number of conspirators are in jail, others fled.

OREGON

Antoine Gugair, a young man who resided near St Louis on French prairie, was kicked by a horse on last Friday evening, from the effects of which he has since died.

The following articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of secretary of state: Milton Burying Ground Association, located in Umatilla county, capital stock $200, incorporators N Pierce, F J Morice, M V Worrington. Weston Lodge No 58 I. O. O. F., located at Weston, Umatilla county, capital stock $825, incorporators W W Oglesby, D C Lounsburg, N Hendry.

La Grande Gazette: The B M & C B R R Co will start a crew of men and teams from La Grande next Monday to commence work again on their road. The directors of the company have in contemplation the letting of a contract for grading the next 32 miles. This includes the four miles already graded, leaving 28 miles to grade. The estimates show 55,000 cubic yards of excavation in that distance at 13 cents per yard, making but $7,150 for the whole distance, or $255 per mile, and the contract can be let to responsible parties for one half per cent per yard less than the estimate.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY

The Walla Walla railroad will be put in condition to do ten times the business this year that has ever offered before.

For members of the constitutional convention in the judicial district Larrabee, Dennison and Wait are elected, and in the council districts it is pretty well [illegible] Abernethy, Andrews, Bradshaw, Henry, Hanna, Emery and [illegible] are elected.

The [illegible] taken in Walla Walla county [illegible] presented 15,500 scalps at one time [illegible].

It is asserted by the Walla Walla [illegible].

M[illegible] his [illegible] work. Besides his own [illegible] labor for years he kept two copyists engaged in London and two others at the Hague.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

The Haskoi Insurrection—Its Great Extent

Pera, May [illegible].—Advices from Adrianople and Philippopolis of the 21st report continued fighting about Haskoi, in which district 21 Mahommedan villages have been destroyed. The Russians are laying the blame on Bulgarians, and Bulgarians laying it on Russians. There have been many arrests at Adrianople among Bulgarians accused of complicity in the destruction of Turkish villages. The insurgents have not yet descended into the plain further west than Haskoi, but the Turks and Bulgarians who have been converted to Islamism of Dritahma valley co-operate with the main body of insurgents, furnishing a contingent and holding the mountain passes. To counteract this movement a Russian force is marching from Sophia. In the south the insurgents have taken [illegible]bova and other places. Thirty-eight wounded Russians have been brought to Philippopolis. The main body of the insurgents is estimated at 30,000, inclusive of scattered bands. Information reaches us that many Greeks have joined, and that there is communication between the leaders and insurgent bands of Thessaly, which seems credible when it is remembered that the Greek insurrection was anti-Sclav rather than anti-Turk. There seems also reason to expect a strong Albanian contingent will join the insurrection.

British Employment of Indian Troops

In the house of commons Sir Wm Vernon Harcourt queried the right of the government to employ Indian troops without the consent of parliament.

Northcote defended the act as constitutional, being merely a movement of troops from one part to another part of the empire. The government, he said, did not publish the news and did not expect it to become public so soon. The government's policy still is to obtain an amicable settlement, but it may be disappointed; therefore it is its duty to take precautions. The expenses of the Indian troops will be borne by the imperial exchequer. He apprehended they would serve under the Indian military act.

A Heavy Debt

London, May 7.—A Russian correspondent writes from Cracow that the Russian government is said to owe one company for victualing the army 20,000,000 roubles. The company must suspend unless paid immediately.

In Favor of Peace

The czar's predilections are entirely in favor of peace.

Short Rations

Great misery and destitution prevails among peasants of the Russian governments of Kassan, Viatka, Nijni Novgorod, Perm and Simbirsk. Local administrations cannot afford relief, as the people are unable to pay the taxes.

Insurgents in Maritza Valley

A dispatch from Vienna says the insurgents seem to have entirely disappeared from Maritza valley, but it is unknown whether they have been driven back or are merely concentrating to resist large Russian reinforcements.

Basis of Arrangement

New York, May 7.—A dispatch from London says a basis of arrangement which the powers desired to submit to the czar has been agreed upon. The arrangement is in five divisions. The first division proposes that the two regions of Bulgaria north of the Balkans shall be conceded to Russia, and that the southern portion shall remain to a great extent under the authority of the sultan. The second division relates solely to Asiatic compensation, which it is proposed shall be reduced to a minimum.

English Officers in Turkey.

London, May 7.—The most important army corps in front of Constantinople is commanded by an Englishman, Baker Pasha. Capt. Manthorp, an Englishman, second in command of the Turkish fleet, has just received a decoration from the sultan.

An Attempt to Injure Insurance

The attempt to create a scare about Russian privateers is done to affect underwriters, who continue willing to take any quantity of risks on British hulls at 7 to 10 shillings.

Shipment of Arms

Twelve hundred Martini Henry rifles have been ordered shipped to Malta immediately, probably for the Indian contingent.

Gortschakoff's Illness

It seems there is a general impression that Prince Gortschakoff will not be able to resume the chancellorship.

Working Hard for Peace

Present endeavors are stated to be directed to securing such understanding between England and Russia as will permit the assembling of the congress without a certainty of war. Should the government take further measures likely to lead to the war, the statement of Lord Northcote in the house of commons last evening is regarded as reassuring. It is also thought that the visit of Count Schouvaloff, Russian ambassador at London, to St Petersburg cannot be otherwise than hopeful to the cause of peace, as he can explain the views of the English government and the people more effectively than could be done in correspondence. The change in the public opinion of Russia in a peaceful direction is said to be very marked, and to be the result of the recognition of the serious consequences that would inevitably result from a new war.

For the Far West.

The following extract of a letter from New York to the Chicago Journal has its duplicates in a very large number of eastern journals:

The disposition to go west is daily increasing here, especially among the laboring classes. Last Tuesday a large party started for homes beyond the Missouri, and others are to follow in rapid succession. This revival of immigration to the west is due to three causes—the good crops of last year, poor prospects for mechanics and artisans here, and the belief that all the good and cheap lands are rapidly being taken. There are thousands of people in and around New York who are trying to sell their farms or city and village dwellings with a view of moving to the far west.

Very Uncomplimentary to Tilden.

[From the Chicago Times.]

There is no reason to doubt that the confessions of the two Florida villains are confessions of truth. There never has been any good reason to doubt that upon the face of honest returns Tilden electors were chosen in Florida and in Louisiana. Why then was not Sam Tilden made president? The answer is, his own behavior in an emergency demanding an able political leader proved his unfitness to be president. That he is likely to be less unfit hereafter than he has shown himself to be heretofore his moaning persistence in advertising his sore does not tend to show.

Demagogues and the Income Tax.

[From the New York Herald.]

It is merely a dodge of western and southern members for electioneering effect. A new house of representatives is to be chosen this year, and the present members are tempted to do a great deal for buncombe. The bill reviving the income tax will therefore receive a stronger support in the house than it will in the senate, if it should reach the latter [illegible] the senators are [illegible] so directly affected by the elections of this present year as are all the members of the house.

The Iowa Temper

[From the Burlington Iowa Eye.]

Secretary McCrary [illegible] ought it is to be hoped that the Iowa statesman will let go his hold before he is jerked over the line, across which Mr Hayes has already gone.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate

Washington, May 7.

[illegible] moved to take up house bill to [illegible] to take it up now that it might be read a second time. [illegible]

The [illegible] Morrill moved its reference to committee on finance.

Pending the [illegible] morning hour expired, when Sargent [illegible] the regular order, and the consideration of the pension appropriation bill was resumed.

[illegible] from the foreign committee made a report [illegible] placed on the calendar. He also reported as a substitute for the senate joint resolution on Chinese immigration a concurrent resolution on the subject [illegible] placed on the calendar.

House

The house decided to go into committee of the whole on the tariff bill.

Banks said if the New England cotton manufactures were destroyed by legislation as they might be, they could take the south [illegible] with them. The south in its [illegible] the manufacturers were destroying their own power and position. What member from California or Texas would assassinate the wool interests of his state by voting for this bill?

Wood quoted from Spofford's Almanac, showing dividends in banks directly woolen mills were 9 to 17 per cent annually.

Banks said the same book showed the dividends of companies in 1860 were large, but dividends for 18[illegible] averaged only 13 [illegible] per cent on an aggregate capital of [illegible] millions and 34 companies paid [illegible]. The proposition of the bill on wool [illegible] and which Wood had spoken of as a [illegible] was assassination of the most important national industry, but the fact was the committee on ways and means did not know what it was doing in the woolen sections.

MARK TWAIN

Mr Chairman: I had intended to make an address of some length here to-night, and in fact wrote out an impromptu speech [laughter], but had not time to memorize it. I cannot make a speech on the moment, and therefore [illegible] unprepared. I am silent and undone. However, I will say this much for the speech I had written out, that it was a very good one, and I gave it away, as I had no further use for it, and I saw that I could not deliver it. Therefore I will ask the indulgence of the company here to let me retire without speaking. I will make my compliments to our honored friend, but will meet him [illegible] on board ship, where I shall be a fellow passenger.

[Here follows the speech which Mr Clemens wrote out.]

I have been warned—as no doubt have all among you that are inexperienced—that a dinner to our embassador is an occasion that tenders and even requires a peculiar caution and delicacy in the handling of the dangerous weapon of speech. I have been warned to avoid all mention of international politics, and all criticisms, however mild, of countries with which we are at peace, lest such utterances embarrass our minister and our government in their dealings with foreign states. In a word, I have been cautioned to talk, but be careful not to say anything. I do not consider this a difficult task.

Now it has often occurred to me that the conditions under which we live at the present day, with the revelations of geology all about us, viewing upon the one hand the majestic configurations of the silurian, oolitic, old red sandstone periods, and upon the other, the affiliations and stratifications and ramifications of the prehistoric post pliocene ante penultimate epochs, we are stricken dumb with amazed surprise, and can only lift up our hands and say with that wise but odious Frenchman—— It was a slip of the tongue, sir, and wholly unintentional—entirely unintentional. It would ill become me upon an occasion like this purposely to speak slightingly of the citizen of a country with which we are at peace—and especially great and gracious France, whom God preserve! The subject, however, is a delicate one, and I will not pursue it.

But I was about to remark—cast your eye abroad, sir, for one pregnant moment over the mighty domain of intellectual progression, and contemplate the awe compelling theory of the descent of man! Development, sir! Development! Natural selection! Correlation of the sexes! Spontaneous combustion! To what gulfs and whirlwinds of intellectual stimulus these magic words fling upon the burning canvass of the material universe of the soul. Across the chasm of the ages we take the oyster by the hand and call him brother, and back and still further back we go and breathe the germ we cannot see, and know in him our true Adam. And as we stand dazed, transfixed, exalted, and gaze down the long procession of life, marking how stealthily, how symmetrically we have ascended step by step to our sublime estate and dignity of humanity—out of one lowly form into a little higher and a little higher form—adding grace after grace and function after function with each and every change—developing from tadpoles into frogs, frogs into fishes, fishes into birds, birds into reptiles, reptiles into Russians—I beg a million pardons, sir and gentlemen—it was a wholly innocent slip of the tongue, and due only to the excitement of debate—for far be it from me upon such an occasion as this to cast a seeming slur upon a great nation with whom we are at peace—a great and noble Christian nation—whom God expand!

But as I was about to remark, I maintain, and nothing can drive me from that position—that the contributions of the nineteenth century to science and the industrial arts are—are—but of course they are. There is no need to dwell upon that. You look at it yourself. Look at steam! Look at the steamboat! Look at the railway, look at the steamship. Look at the telegraph, which enables you to flash your thoughts from world to world, ignoring intervening seas. Look at the telephone, which enables you to speak into a[illegible] ear the word that cores, and into the ear of the foe the opinion which you ought not to risk at shorter range. Look at the sewing machine, look at the fog horn, look at the bell punch, look at the book agent. And more than all, a thousand times look at the last and greatest, the aerophone, which will enable Moody and Sankey to stand on the tallest summit of the Rocky mountains and deliver their message to listening America—and necessarily it will annul and do away with the pernicious custom of taking up a collection. Look at all these, sir, and say if it is not a far prouder and more precious boon to have been born in the nineteenth century than in any century that went before it. Ah, sir, clothed with the all sufficient grandeur of citizenship in the nineteenth century, even the wild and arid New Jerseyman might—a mistake, sir, a mistake and entirely unintentional. Of all the kingdoms, principalities and countries with which it is our privilege to hold peaceful relations, I regard New Jersey as nearest to our admiration, nearest to our heart, the wisest and the purest among the nations. I retire the unhappy language and beg your sympathy and indulgence.

But as I was about to remark, it has always [illegible] I don't seem to have any knack at diplomatic speech. I have probably compromised the country enough for the present.

The May Musical Festival

San Francisco, May [illegible].—Preparations for the May musical festival is proceeding favorably. Societies in the interior are reported in excellent training, and arrangements have been made with all steamship lines to transport them at half rates. Excursion rates will also be granted at the time of the festival. The railroads have as yet made no [illegible]. Decoration day (May 30) will be devoted to patriotic music, and Charles Warren Stoddard is writing a requiem poem which will be set to music and sung on that day. The sale of seats is progressing so well as to virtually assure the entire pecuniary success of the undertaking.

Dividends

San Francisco, May 7.—The bonanza companies declared their dividends to-day as follows: Con Virginia $1 per share and California $2 per share, payable as usual.

Mr O'Brien's Will

San Francisco, May 7.—The will of W S O'Brien was filed with the clerk of the probate court this afternoon, and the 3d of June fixed for the time for hearing objections. The estate is sworn at less than $6,000,000. The will was executed on the 4th of last February. J C Flood and the testator's nephew, James V Coleman, appointed trustees without bonds or security of any kind. The executors are directed to convert all of the estate except stock of the Nevada bank into cash as soon as possible, and are empowered to dispose of the real and personal property at public or private auction without any order of the court. From the proceeds the executors are directed to pay all debts, and deceased then bequeaths to his nieces Celia and Isabella Coleman $300,000 each, to his nephew James V Coleman $[illegible]00,000, to his niece Agnes McDonough $300,000, to his nephews James McDonough and Wm O'Brien McDonough $300,000 each, to his niece Mary Pauline O'Brien $300,000, to the Roman Catholic orphan asylum for boys at San Rafael $50,000, the Roman Catholic orphan asylum of this city $50,000, to the Protestant orphan asylum of this city $25,000. Should the proceeds of sale fall short, the bequests to asylums to be paid in full and to relatives pro rata. Should the proceeds exceed the bequests, the residue to be paid to deceased's sisters Maria Coleman and Kate McDonough in equal parts. The stock of the Nevada bank is to be divided between said sisters equally, and in case of the death of either sister her share to go to her children or their representatives. It is the desire of the testator that the bank stock should be retained by the devisees during their natural lives, but this is merely a request, not a mandate. The witnesses to the will are Charles M Delaney, 419 Montgomery street, and Cornelius O'Connor.

A Scoundrel Hung

Ukiah, May 7.—Mrs Reynold, a married lady and an esteemed resident of this county, while riding through Walker valley, 15 miles above Ukiah, Sunday, May [illegible], was seized by an Indian and dragged from her horse to the bushes beside the road. The scoundrel attempted to outrage her person, but fearing he would be discovered tried to conceal his crime by murder. He inflicted several dangerous wounds upon her neck and breast, and cutting her throat, but fled on the approach of Mr Angel, who was attracted by her cries. The lady was taken to Mr Angel's house and medical assistance obtained. Hopes of her recovery are entertained. The Redwood Indians and residents of Walker valley went in search of the Indian and captured him yesterday afternoon. He was taken to the room where his victim lay, and was recognized by her. The people then selected a convenient tree, where Judge Lynch passed sentence. A rope was produced, and the body of the Indian was left swinging in the wind.

An Unconstitutional Tax.

[From the New York Times.]

The language of the constitution is plain: "No capitation or other direct tax shall be laid unless in proportion to the census or enumeration hereinbefore directed to be taken." The previous provision referred to declares that "representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several states * * * according to their respective numbers." An income tax is not in conformity with these provisions. It is a direct tax having no relation to numbers. It is not apportioned among the several states on the basis of population, but is levied upon limited classes according to their earnings or receipts. It is therefore not warranted by the constitution [illegible] tax of two per cent on incomes [illegible].

THEY WANT TO KNOW IN LANE

Eugene City, May 5 [illegible].

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

When the political dictionary of the future appears "sorehead" will be defined as a politician who knows no motive but interest, no criterion but personal success and no God but a self [illegible]. The subject of this definition is a resident of Lane county. Under the paltry guise of fealty to the Republican party he is taking a course that if successful will culminate in the defeat of our legislative ticket. It is the avowed intention of sorehead to ask the candidates on the canvass whether if elected they will vote for Mitchell or against him. Any [illegible] Republican can [illegible] the suicidal effects of a direct answer to such a question, and no true Republican will ask such a question. Mitchell's friends have as good a right to ask this question as Mitchell's enemies. The assistance of the one is just as essential to Republican success in Lane county as the assistance of the other. If the candidates pledge themselves for Mitchell they will lose the support of his enemies. If they pledge themselves against him they will lose the support of his friends, and in either case defeat will be certain.

The candidates owe no duty to Mitchell's friends or enemies; their duty is the Republican party. They have no right to do anything that will prejudice its success. If the Republicans of Lane county cannot trust their nominees to vote for the best and most available candidate for the United States senate—if they feel that their nominees are not true Republicans devoted to the best interests of the party—let them signify it, and there is not one nominee who is not ready to retire from the field. But let them not further the designs of selfish soreheads by imposing conditions that no manly Republican will assume. Let them not assist in gratifying the personal animosity of any individual at the expense of the Republican party. We have had enough of those malcontents whose motto is "rule or ruin." Let us crush all efforts to produce dissension in our ranks, let us present an united front to the foe, and victory is sure to perch on our banner in June.

MR CAMPBELL WITHDRAWS

We are indebted to the Salem Record for an advance copy of the following:

Monmouth, Ogn., April 29 1875

Hon L Beall, Chairman State Executive Committee of National Greenback and Workingmen's Party, Monmouth Oregon—Dear Sir: Circumstances over which I have no control constrain me to decline the nomination as candidate to congress tendered me by the National Greenback and Workingmen's party in convention at Albany April 3[illegible]. Sickness in my family demands my presence at home, and constant care forbids that I should meet the opposing candidates east of the mountains according to arrangements which I made with Gov Whiteaker. I am unwilling to jeopardize the success of the principles involved without a vigorous campaign, which the continued bad health of Mrs Campbell prevents me from making.

It is due alike to myself and to my friends of the convention to say that my nomination was the result of a misunderstanding for which, however, no one is censurable. My name should not have been used only in a contingency which did not arise. I neither expected nor desired the nomination, and on this account I appreciate the more highly the unsought honor and the more reluctantly decline. I have the honor to be, with high respect, your obedient servant,

I F CAMPBELL

WEDNESDAY MORNING MAY 8 1878

NEITHER DECEIVING NOR DECEIVED

From a letter we print in another place it appears that there are persons in Lane county who wish to be informed by candidates for the legislature whether they the said candidates, will if elected vote for Mr Mitchell or not. The writer of the letter is himself a candidate for the legislature in Lane and evidently is not prepared to respond So he remonstrates with heat and vehemence against the interrogation and tries to persuade himself that it is not right for citizens who think a certain thing ought not to be done —and know it never could be done except by indirect methods, including the arts of intrigue and subterranean politics yet see it plainly attempted —to take a bond against being misled or deceived The epithet sorehead is applied to such persons and it is insisted that they do wrong because they refuse to be made possible instruments to accomplish a purpose to which they never knowingly would give their consent But the sorehead is a very numerous individual at this time not only in Lane county but all over the state True he is a disagreeable fellow insisting that he has rights which he does not derive from ring politicians or from any political party, but troublesome as he is has not yet been disfranchised and therefore must be tolerated It is well known that if Mr Mitchell were directly before the people asking for their votes, large numbers of Republicans would decline to vote for him With the same propriety they may decline, if they see fit, to vote for candidates for the legislature whose position on the subject is not satisfactory to them and they will do it In fact there may be even better reason for it, for it is notorious that there is an attempt to do by political management and devious methods what never could be done successfully with open avowal of purpose. The people at large have no inconsiderable interest in this matter of electing a senator A great majority of them do not approve Mr Mitchell s course on very important public questions They feel that the interests of the state require the election of some one else But in the election of members of the legislature is the only opportunity they have of making their views and purposes felt After that occasion passes the whole matter is beyond their reach They cannot go to the capital en masse to watch over their representatives All citizens, therefore, who have objects in view which must be accomplished through representatives elected by their votes have an unquestionable right to select their representatives with that view, and it is a right which they hold independently of political managers who may be trying to thwart the public will by ingenious sophistry and skillful manipulation But it is claimed that unhesitating trust should be reposed in candidates, and no questions asked or conditions required There are candidates whose known character, position and opinions are a sufficient guarantee of their action in representative capacity But such is not the case with all; and as members of the legislature have frequently been known to do what was not expected of them, thereby defeating the intentions of the people, it is not only the right, but in a higher sense it is the duty, of the citizen and voter to satisfy himself that his wishes and purposes will be respected. It is said that Mitchell s friends have as good a right to ask this question as Mitchell's enemies Undoubtedly they have. It may even be conceded if necessary that this is one of the most valuable features of our boasted freedom. And Mitchell's friends have asked this question in all parts of the state and have nominated candidates for the legislature with a view to it wherever they could They have given time and attention to it they know what they are about, and in no instance are they deceived Now there are others who, before they vote, intend also to know as it is their equal right to know They want to deceive nobody, and intend not to be deceived themselves Mr Mitchell cannot unite the Republican party By his candidacy for re election the party is threatened with defeat For the peace and success of the party it is necessary that he retire now from office, and that the present effort to push him be abandoned He has personal friends who consider his persistence very unwise and very hurtful to his party Should the time come when he could be named for official place without endangering party success he and his supporters might with better reason endeavor to advance him again But at this time the effort distracts the Republican party and renders doubtful a triumph to which otherwise it would be clearly entitled

RIVALLING NEW YORK

In a recent number of Scribner there was an article written to show that the great impetus given to the growth of New York over that of Philadelphia was originally the result in great degree of the construction of the Erie canal But it was also shown that since the vast railroad system of the country was developed New York was gradually losing its pre-eminence, and Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore were steadily absorbing a portion of the trade of the west, which New York until within a few years, almost wholly controlled There is not, indeed any actual diminution of the trade of New York It is only falling back relatively to the increase of business in Baltimore, Philadelphia and Boston. But Gov Seymour, in a recent speech delivered at Albany, expressed grave fears for the future of the American metropolis He said ' There is ground for the fear felt in New York that the great part of its trade will be turned from the city. It has lost much of that which gave it wealth A large share of grain from the west which once sought its port is now sent to rival points Railroads all tend to harm the city. The fall in real estate is due in part to causes which are felt all over the land. They may pass away, but there is no doubt if there is no check to the change now going on it will stop its growth and break down its wealth and strength The railroads do not give it the trade it had when the waterways were main routes Municipal misgovernment in New York which has produced a vast and rapidly increasing debt and which shows that the property of the city is really at the mercy of its irresponsible classes is another incubus that sets heavily on its enterprise

It has been held by the supreme court that for the same reason which prohibits the states from taxing the salaries of officers of the general government the latter is prohibited from taxing the salaries of judicial officers of the states The Chicago Tribune remarks that by implication the prohibition extends to taxation of the income of any other state officer or any officer appointed or elected under the laws or constitution of any state This would create a very numerous privileged class. The man who is employed in a factory workshop warehouse or in any private establishment or occupation will have to pay a tax on his income—on his earnings but the man who can get employment under any state county or city government will be exempt The whole official class therefore will enjoy an exemption denied to all other classes of society This is presented by the Tribune as an argument against the revival of a tax that would operate with such partiality

The system of pledging candidates is objectionable undoubtedly But sometimes there are things which ought to be done or ought not to be done on which electors have a right to demand that the position of those to whom they are about to delegate their authority shall be known John Stuart Mill states the true principle thus Pledges should not be required unless the choice of electors is narrowed to a person presumptively under the influence of partialities hostile to their interests To exact pledges in favor of any particular man is always inadmissible because this changes the public service to a personal service and converts a political party into an instrument for promotion of personal and selfish ends But to require pledges against a particular individual is a different thing when it comes under the rule stated by Mill The distinction is a very plain one

The New York Evening Post utters a warning to congressional dissentients who are talking of conducting the canvass next fall by ignoring the principles set forth at Cincinnati It says If these principles are disregarded and the president and his advisers are passed by in silence then the party managers will too late wake up to the perception of their mistake " while if the wiser and more honest course is pursued the strength of the party will surprise its opponents

Howe s third term in the senate is likely to be his last That unfortunate speech of his was the last feather Wisconsin Republicans are now asking what evidence of statesmanship the senator has given during his eighteen years of service, and are looking about for another man

It will be seen by notice printed in another place that Mr T F Campbell Greenback candidate for congress has withdrawn We hear though the information is not very direct, that the committee will probably make another nomination

Ann Eliza Pinkston has gone to Washington Like Judge McLin Ann Eliza thinks Mr Hayes and his cabinet have not rewarded her for her valuable services and have gone back on the Republican party

"A SACK OF MONEY"

TO THE PUBLIC —An article under the above caption appeared in the daily Bee of May 4th a paper of which Mr George Coggan is popularly supposed to be the proprietor This article demands and shall receive more than a passing notice from the Gentleman from Yamhill Facts and falsehood are so mixed together as to lead to the conclusion that the writer or prompter of the matter knowing that the former could not be controverted seeks by the admixture of the latter to divert inquiry from the proper channel in the hope of escaping the damage which the first may cause him A few of the matters stated will be here explicitly denied. It is not true that the three different parties alluded to deposited money on the same evening in the St Charles Hotel safe The check story of No 7 inverted to look like a 2 is threadbare now because it was tried on and failed to work against Mr Schaffe The Gentleman from Yamhill it is true was ignorant of the exchange(?) of sacks at the hotel had he known of it he probably would have taken steps to secure the arrest of the thief who made the exchange but it is not true that he had been indulging freely in tarantula juice. Neither is it true that the right sack belonging to him was left in the safe It is not true that the sack received by the Gentleman aforesaid contained no rolls but was filled with loose silver neither did he ever conclude that perhaps he did receive the wrong sack nor did he ever acknowledge that his cash accounts had not balanced since his return home from his trip to the metropolis. The sworn evidence of Mr Coggan and others on the examination of Mr Schaffer accused by Mr Coggan of larceny is utterly inconsistent with the theory now put forth by his paper If the interested parties are satisfied with the adjustment made or to be made or if they experience a certain source of relief of course it can be no business of mine yet as I can neither be bulldosed nor suffer myself to be compromised by mendacious statements I have seen fit to pen this communication

Respectfully H C DALE

The Gentleman from Yamhill

"SAUSAGE DE BOLOGNA"

AN ARTICLE SIGNED "INQUIRER APPEARED in the daily Bee of the 6th instant which calls for and requires in justice to myself an explanation Had Inquirer' seen fit before rushing into print to investigate the matters concerning which he writes a sensation article would have been spoiled and no foundation left for the gratification of private malice or secret revenge The facts in the case are these Mr Reed of this city called upon me on the morning of the 4th ult stating that a cow belonging to a poor woman had died at the place mentioned in Inquirer s communication that she did not have means to remove it, and requested me to take it away stating that the skin would, he thought pay expenses I thereupon requested Mr Rhodes, who drives an express wagon to go with me and assist in skinning the carcass After skinning the animal the carcass was cut up put in the wagon and taken to Mr Baker who resides near the Fourth street bridge to be used in feeding hogs The skin was retained by myself Although not in the sausage business yet as the article referred to may produce qualms in epicures of Inquirer s ilk and injure the legitimate business of honest men I have deemed it proper to make the foregoing statement The foregoing facts can if necessary be corroborated by many witnesses

Inquirer can have another piece of meat if he wishes it as there is some left

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 8 1

CITY.

CAUGHT AGAIN —Shortly after o clock yesterday morning the big bell sounded an alarm of fire A moment later and the bells of various engine houses took up the warning refrain and aroused the people from their slumbers It was soon discovered that building located on D street between First and Second which was so badly damaged Monday morning was on fire again Thither the engines hastened with all speed By time the companies reached the scene fire was burning very briskly and in a minutes more the entire building would have been enveloped in flames It was but work of a minute to extinguish the incipient conflagration The second fire, it is claimed originated in the following manner After the fire Monday morning one of the mattresses which had been burning was placed back in the building It was supposed the fire was all out but such was not case The fire continued to smoulder unobserved and at an early hour yesterday morning was communicated to the building damage was slight

DEATH AND DESTITUTION —Mr Joseph Paddleford died at his residence last evening near the corner of G and Fifteenth streets after lingering illness Deceased during the past winter has been working at the lower saw mill whenever his health would permit has been unable to labor for nearly months and during that time had a wife and three children dependent on him for support We are informed that the family are in very destitute circumstances and have not means to bury the husband and father ceased was about 48 years of age and a native of New Hampshire Some of the kind neighbors have kept the family from suffering during the sickness of Mr Paddleford This is case which makes the strongest appeal to the benevolently disposed We hope the matter will be attended to at once Let our kind hearted and generous citizens see that the dead is decently buried and the living provided for

SURPRISE PARTY —A very enjoyable affair took place last night at the residence of S Julius Mayer it being the first anniversary of his wedding day A number of his friends knowing that he and his worthy spouse were to spend the evening with some of their friends about twenty couples took possession of their parlors and they being sent round the house in total darkness upon their entrance The lights were suddenly turned on and the musicians struck up a march. say that they were surprised would hardly the subject justice. It was a success in every sense of the word As we go to press Portland's fairest belles and beaux 'are tripping the light fantastic and ' all goes merry as marriage bell COLLISION —Monday forenoon a team belonging to John Rines & Co and attached a wood wagon started to run away from yard at the foot of Oak street. In turning the corner at Front street, the horses failed clear the sidewalk in front of Corbett, Failing & Co s large hardware establishment The team ran up on the sidewalk and struck the end of the tongue against the edge of the doorway. So violent was the shock that a portion of the mason work was knocked out leaving the side the doorway ragged and broken Without doing further damage the team was stopped a mason called in and the breach repaired.

FIRE AT NEW TACOMA —News was received here yesterday that New Tacoma had been visited by a fire Monday night. Nothing definite has been received of the extent of fire and the probable aggregate loss Dispatches state that the furniture store of Messrs Godkin & Derr was destroyed by fire, How many buildings more had been burned is not stated. The New Zealand Fire Insurance Co held a policy for $250 on the building and the State Investment and Insurance Company had a risk on the stock of $2,000 Telegrams to the agents of the latter company in the city did not state that the loss would amount to the above figures

INSTALLATION.—Monday evening the following officers of Portland Lodge I. O. G. T No 201 were duly installed by P. L D H. Grenfell assisted by P W C T E. Ryan and P W C T W A. Robinson, C A Coburn, W C T F W Miller, R. S Howard Reed, L H S O M Gregory W V T Robert Hodgsen W S , Miss Best, Asst Sec., R. Martan, F Sec , Daniel Owens, W M , Miss Flora Whiting D M John Richards, W I G Henry Parker, G A P Goodwin, W C J J Walton, W C T Portland Lodge reported 83 members in good standing

INVITATION —The members of Willamette Engine Co No 1 intend to be "at home this evening and members of the department with their friends are invited to call on them and have a general good time The programme of the evening s entertainment will be arranged to fit the disposition of those present so that each one will be pleased and all put in a cheerful and friendly mood The room will be open and guests welcomed from 8 o clock till fair bed time

MEETING OF ALUMNI.—A number of the graduates of the High school met at the Central school building Monday the object being to organize an alumni association A temporary organization was effected by electing Mr H. Graden president, and Mr Wm. Jackson secretary A committee was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws and to report at a meeting to be held on the evening of the 17th inst

ALBANY EXCURSIONISTS —The picnic excursionists from Albany and stations on that side have taken the East Portland park for the 18th The train leaves Albany at 6 A M. and the excursionists will have six hours in Portland and East Portland The indications are that there will not be less than 500 persons come down Rev J F DeVore is the manager

LECTURE AT EAST PORTLAND —Rev Mr Cruzan will deliver a lecture at 7½ o clock this evening at Odd Fellows hall East Portland on Gilding—a Hit at the Shams and Shallowness of the Day " Admission 50 cents The proceeds of the lecture are to be given to Mr W Cougill who was stricken down with paralysis some time ago

THE LECTURE —The lecture last evening at Good Templar hall by Mr Walter Hyde on the subject of The Nature of Religion,' was largely attended. The lecture was replete with interest and was listened to with much attention Mr Hyde will speak again at the same place next Sunday evening.

AT QUEENSTOWN —Mr James Fairfowl, son of Capt Fairfowl the well known stevedore left this city some months ago on the British ship Steelfield bound for England The dispatches announce that the Steelfield arrived at Queenstown yesterday Mr Fairfowl will probably not return to this city until next fall

AT WALLA WALLA —Mr John G Hay who was formerly with Ainslie & Davidson and later the Oregon Furniture Company has located in Walla Walla where he has gone into business His friends here wish him success

CAUGHT AGAIN.—Shortly after o clock yesterday morning the big bell sounded an alarm of fire. A moment later and the bells of the various engine houses took up the warning and aroused the people from their slumbers. It was soon discovered that the building located on D street between First and Second, which was so badly damaged on Monday morning was on fire again. Thither the engines hastened with all speed. By the time the companies reached the scene the fire was burning very briskly and in a few minutes more the entire building would have been enveloped in flames. It was but the work of a minute to extinguish the incipient conflagration. The second fire is claimed originated in the following manner. After the fire Monday morning one of the mattresses which had been burning was placed back in the building. It was supposed that the fire was all out but such was not the case. The fire continued to smoulder unobserved, and at an early hour yesterday morning was communicated to the building. The damage was slight.

DEATH AND DESTITUTION.—Mr Joseph Paddleford died at his residence last evening near the corner of G and Fifteenth streets after a lingering illness. Deceased during the past winter has been working at the lower saw mill whenever his health would permit. He has been unable to labor for nearly two months, and during that time had a wife and three children dependent on him for support. We are informed that the family are in very destitute circumstances and have not the means to bury the husband and father. Deceased was about 48 years of age and a native of New Hampshire. Some of the kind neighbors have kept the family from suffering during the sickness of Mr Paddleford. This is a case which makes the strongest appeal to the benevolently disposed. We hope the matter will be attended to at once. Let our kind hearted and generous citizens see that the dead is decently buried and the living provided for.

SURPRISE PARTY.—A very enjoyable affair took place last night at the residence of Mr S. Julius Mayer, it being the first anniversary of his wedding day. A number of his friends knowing that he and his worthy spouse were to spend the evening with some of their friends, about twenty couples took possession of their parlors, and they being sent for found the house in total darkness upon their entrance. The lights were suddenly turned on and the musicians struck up a march. To say that they were surprised would hardly do the subject justice. It was a success in every sense of the word. As we go to press Portland's fairest belles and beaux 'are tripping the light fantastic" and "all goes merry as a marriage bell."

COLLISION.—Monday forenoon a team belonging to John Rines & Co and attached to a wood wagon, started to run away from the yard, at the foot of Oak street. In turning the corner at Front street, the horses failed to clear the sidewalk in front of Corbett, Failing & Co's large hardware establishment. The team ran up on the sidewalk and struck the end of the tongue against the edge of the doorway. So violent was the shock that a portion of the masonry work was knocked out, leaving the side of the doorway ragged and broken. Without doing further damage, the team was stopped a mason called in and the breach repaired.

FIRE AT NEW TACOMA.—News was received here yesterday that New Tacoma had been visited by a fire Monday night. Nothing definite has been received of the extent of the fire, and the probable aggregate loss. Dispatches state that the furniture store of Messrs [illegible] & Derr was destroyed by fire. How many buildings more had been burned is not known. The New Zealand Fire Insurance Co had a policy for $250 on the building and the [illegible] Investment and Insurance Company a risk on the stock of $2,000. Telegrams to the agents of the latter company in this city did not state that the loss would amount to the above figures.

INSTALLATION.—Monday evening the following officers of Portland Lodge I O G T No. 101, were duly installed by P L D W E. Campbell, assisted by P W C T E W Ryan and P. W. C T W A Robinson. Mrs C. A. Coburn, W. C. T.; F W Miller, R H S; Howard Reed, L H S, O M Gregory W. V. T.; Robert Hodgson W S. Miss A. Best, Asst. Sec.; R. Martin, F. Sec. Daniel Owens, W. M.; Miss Flora Whiting D M, John Richards, W. I G. Henry Parker O G; A. E. Goodwin, W O, J J Walton P W C T. Portland Lodge reported 83 members in good standing.

INVITATION.—The members of Willamette Engine Co. No. 1 intend to be "at home" this evening, and members of the department with their friends are invited to call on them and have a general good time. The programme of the evening's entertainment will be arranged to fit the disposition of those present, so that each one will be pleased and all put in a cheerful and friendly mood. The rooms will be open and guests welcomed from o'clock till fair-bed time.

MEETING OF ALUMNI.—A number of the graduates of the High school met at the Central school building Monday, the object being to organize an alumni association. A temporary organization was effected by electing A. R. Graden president, and Mr Wm B Jackson secretary. A committee was appointed to draft a constitution and by laws and to report at a meeting to be held on the evening of the 17th inst.

ALBANY EXCURSIONISTS.—The picnic excursionists from Albany and stations on this road have taken the East Portland park for the 18th. The train leaves Albany at 6 A. M and the excursionists will have six hours in Portland and East Portland. The indications are that there will not be less than 500 persons come down. Rev. J F DeVore is the manager.

LECTURE AT EAST PORTLAND.—Rev Mr Cruzan will deliver a lecture at 7½ o'clock this evening at Odd Fellows hall East Portland, on "Gilding—a Hit at the Shams and Shallowness of the Day." Admission 50 cents. The proceeds of the lecture are to be given to Mr. W Cougill, who was stricken down with paralysis some time ago.

THE LECTURE.—The lecture last evening at Good Templar hall, by Mr Walter Hyde on the subject of "The Nature of Religion" was largely attended. The lecture was replete with interest and was listened to with much attention. Mr. Hyde will speak again at the same place next Sunday evening.

AT QUEENSTOWN.—Mr James Fairfowl son of Capt. Fairfowl, the well known stevedore left this city some months ago on the British ship Sheffield, bound for England. The dispatches announce that the Sheffield arrived at Queenstown yesterday. Mr Fairfowl will probably not return to this city until next fall.

AT WALLA WALLA.—Mr John G Hay who was formerly with Ainslie & Davidson and later the Oregon Furniture Company has located in Walla Walla where he has gone into business. His friends here wish him success.

INSANE PATIENT.—Sheriff Conn of Lake county, arrived in this city Monday having in charge an insane person named Logan. The unfortunate was committed at once to the asylum.

Harvey Pope has been indicted for the crime of rape on Miss Clowser by the grand jury of Clackamas county and will be tried at the present term of the circuit court

FOR HIS LIFE.

In the circuit court at Oregon City yesterday morning before his honor Judge Shattuck John A Sallie was placed on trial charged with the murder of Capt Goodin. The state was represented by Raleigh Stott Esq district attorney assisted by E. L Eastman and C A Ball while Messrs. Johnson & McCown appeared for the defense. After examining a large number of jurors the following were selected to try the case: J B Califf, J M Drake, Wm Ranch, Thos. W Foster, H I Besto, Reuben Daniels, W S Failing, Thomas Garrett, J L Bailey, H W Luke, C C Williams and George Wyland.

The prisoner as he sat in court, appears to be a man of 45 years of age some 5 feet 11 inches high full beard and looks to be a rough hard specimen of a backwoodsman. He sat between his counsel and occasionally spoke to them while empanneling the jury but seemed to manifest little if any more interest in the proceedings than the many spectators that thronged the room. But when Mr Ball in his opening statement to the jury was minutely describing the details of the murder (which has been stated in these columns) how the prisoner had slipped behind the old man, and stealthily picking up a rock had crushed in the skull of his unsuspecting victim the prisoner seemed to rouse up to a considerable pitch of excitement.

The statement of the defense was not fully unfolded in the opening statement to the jury by Mr McCown, which was a very touching appeal but it will probably be claimed that the act was done in a frenzy amounting to insanity. The case is exciting great attention in Clackamas county. A large number of witnesses have been subpenaed and the case will probably not be closed until to morrow—the cross examination of the first witness being in progress when the afternoon train passed.

A CHALLENGE TO REV. J. A. CRUZAN

Rev Cruzan—RESPECTED SIR: Having listened to your discourse last Sunday evening upon "The Witch of Endor" and to your announcement of a continuation of your theme and believing that there are two sides to this question and that the agitation of thought is the beginning of wisdom and concurring with Jefferson that "there is nothing to be feared from error when truth is left free to combat it" and my motto being that of St Paul—"Prove all things and hold fast to that which is good" and moreover believing that you are a Christian gentleman chivalrous enough to concede fair play and honest enough to treat opposing views with candor and further believing that in polemic ability you are a foeman worthy of my steel I hereby challenge you to a public discussion of the following resolution:

Resolved, That Modern Spiritualism is a revival of Primitive Christianity that it is identical in its Spiritual Gifts and analogous in its genius and phenomenal facts to the New Dispensation that the Bible sustains and science demonstrates it.

If you accept the gauntlet I will take the affirmative and you the negative of the question, preliminaries to be arranged at our earliest convenience.

Yours for truth and justice

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Mrs L Rau advertises that she is closing out her entire stock of optical goods. A good chance for bargains.

The City of Paris Dry Goods Store is one of the oldest and most fashionable feminine resorts in the city. Mrs Ach advertises an enormous stock just received and for sale cheap.

Mr John H Moores has recently established a foundry and machine shop at No 67 F street between Third and Fourth. He is now prepared to do all kinds of work in his line. Every description of repairing done. Attention is called to the advertisement of Mr Moores.

P Selling that old and favorite dry goods merchant at the corner of First and Yamhill streets makes an important announcement this morning to the public. Mr Selling has a stock of goods which cannot be surpassed by any other firm in the city and he does not proposed to be undersold. Ladies should not fail to give Mr Selling a call before purchasing elsewhere.

Mr Albert Bartsch is the sole agent for Oregon and Washington territory for Steinway & Sons grand square and upright pianos. These pianos have been accorded the highest degree of excellence in all their styles. These superior instruments can be had of Mr Albert Bartsch No 209 Third street. He is also agent for the justly celebrated Kranich & Bach pianos.

Franklin Bros & Co, the well known and popular merchants at No 125 First street are out in a card. The announcement is addressed to the ladies of Portland who are respectfully invited to read it. The firm have just received a very large and well selected stock of ladies goods which will be sold very cheap. Those who give them a call may rest assured that they can be suited as to variety quality and price. Read their price list in another column and do not fail to give them an early call.

A SHOCKING CASUALTY

A correspondent writing from Eugene under date of the 7th inst. sends the following particulars of a shocking accident which occurred at Springfield Lane county on Monday.

While Mr and Mrs Judkins of this county were passing through Springfield in a two-horse hack one of the horses shook off his bridle. The team then ran off. After running a short distance Mrs Judkins was thrown from the vehicle and badly injured. The team ran on toward the Springfield bridge and as they made the necessary curve to run on the bridge, Mr Judkins was hurled head long to the ground. He struck with great violence and was almost instantly killed. Mrs Judkins will probably recover. The horses left the hack at the bridge a complete wreck.

THAT OLD FIRE BELL

The removal and sale of the bell which lately hung in the tower of Willamette Engine Company's house recalls to the minds of old settlers a small scrap of our ancient history.

In the fall of 1858 our fire department consisted of two engine companies and one hook and ladder company which comprises at present a part of our organization. Fire alarms were by no means so frequent as in these latter days but the devouring element was greatly dreaded. In fact the wonderful exemption of Portland from big fires was a matter of remark over the whole coast and our old and wise heads used to shake and say "Your turn will come some day"—and it did.

It may be truthfully asserted that there are very few people in the city at this moment who are aware that the steamship Pacific which was lost several years ago on the route between San Francisco and Victoria was the indirect cause of the purchase of our old cracked bell but so it was. Late in the evening of Friday 15th October 1858 the Pacific left Couch's wharf on her voyage to San Francisco and when abreast of Trevett & Co's flouring mill at the extreme northern end of Front street fired her usual signal gun. A little while after midnight the mill was discovered to be on fire. The wadding of the cannon was supposed to have struck the building and to have been the cause of the fire. At any rate no other satisfactory account of its origin has been suggested. At the time there was only one fire bell in the town which hung over the old house of Willamette No 1, the same now hangs in the belfry of No 3's. Of course this bell was not of sufficient capacity to arouse sleepers in all parts of the town and the consequence was that although the fire department was well represented and the fire was subdued before the building was destroyed yet many old firemen to their extreme mortification discovered next morning that there had been a fire and they had slept through it.

One of the veterans Mr Joseph Bachtel made a canvass of the business part of the town on the morning following the fire, and before noon had succeeded in raising upwards of six hundred dollars for the purchase of a fire bell. The money was placed in the hands of the late J M Van Sycle then chief of the fire department and after some months of delay the bell was bought and shipped and in the fall of 1859 arrived in Portland.

For several months it was without a home and remained on the sidewalk in front of the Metropolis Hotel—more lately the Cosmopolitan—then kept by Messrs Van Sycle & O'Neill. Here it stood or rather was hung on its frame when Gen Scott stopped at Portland on his way to San Juan Island to adjust matters with the British authorities in regard to the occupation of that disputed territory and it was rung for the first time in honor of his arrival.

Subsequently it was hung in the frame tower built by Mr Van Sycle at the foot of Alder street on the levee. In 1860 Mr J H Lappeus city marshal under general instructions from the council to prevent erection of buildings on the levee and to remove those already erected there gave a notice to the city council themselves requiring the removal of the tower. A building put up by Mr G W Vaughn had been previously torn down by the marshal and citizens, but no summary or riotous proceeding took place with the regard to the bell tower.

In 186[illegible] it was removed to the new house of Willamette Engine Co No 1 and remained there until its final removal and sale a few days since. It has not amounted to much as a bell for many years—the long crack in one side effectually destroying its tone. It was a steel bell bought at a time when steel bells were the fashion on account of cheapness. Had it been of regular bell metal it would probably be doing good service to day.

For nearly 20 years it has been a prominent part of the city appointments and for 16 years it has called the vigilant Willamettes to duty and proclaimed their festive gatherings and local triumphs. But its loud cracked voice is hushed at last and the rising generation will forget it as they forget its human contemporaries. But among the old settlers there is a feeling of another friend and time mark gone passed away.

MILITARY NOTES.

The journey from Fort Vancouver W T to Portland and return upon public business performed by Capt. William H Boyle 21st Infantry on the 3d inst. is approved.

A Remarkable Result

It makes no difference how many Physicians or how much medicine you have tried it is now an established fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of Lung Diseases. It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to Throat and Lung Affections, Consumption, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Severe Colds settled on the Breast, Pneumonia, Whooping Cough &c who have no personal knowledge of Boschee's German Syrup. To such we would say that 50,000 dozen were sold last year without one complaint. Consumptives try just one bottle. Regular size 75 cts. Sold by all Druggists in America.

Here we are! Blowing will not alter the people's mind, for the fact is established that the most complete stock of Clothing, furnishing goods, Hats, Trunks, etc., can be found at Kohn's Clothing Palace, cor. First and Morrison streets, at prices fully 25 per cent. cheaper than any other house in the State. Call and be convinced.

Few if any

Among the many thousands who witnessed the brilliant shooting of the California team during the recent shooting contest at Creedmoor knew to what they were largely indebted for their coolness and steadiness of nerve. Old Californians, who are familiar with its sedative properties will not be surprised to learn it was owing to the judicious use of Frese's Hamburg Tea

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER is a scientific combination of some of the most powerful restorative agents in the vegetable kingdom. It restores gray hair to its original color. It makes the scalp white and clean. It cures dandruff and humors and falling out of the hair. It furnishes the nutritive principle by which the hair is nourished and supported. It makes the hair moist soft and glossy and is unsurpassed as a hair dressing. It is the most economical preparation ever offered to the public as its effects remain a long time making only an occasional application necessary. It is recommended and used by eminent medical men and officially endorsed by the State Assayer of Massachusetts. For sale by all dealers

Silver coin 2@2½ per cent discount

The local money market is devoid of any new features the average amount of business being done and the course of the market being about as indicated from time to time during the last two or three weeks Rates on loans and discounts are firm and the inquiry for accommodations showing a slightly increasing volume

San Francisco advices of a late date state that plenty of money with but little present demand even at the current rates of 8@10 per cent is the most prominent feature of the market On the other hand, crop and business indications are unusually favorable with the assurance that large sums will be in active use soon

The dispatches from the east indicate that congress is but little disposed to let well enough alone in financial matters The S F Herald hits the nail on the head when it says "Now as the country is beginning to feel the beneficial influences of these efforts, and business has shown some evidence of revival congress is deluged by a mass of financial propositions all looking more or less to the repeal of the resumption act and the unlimited issue of paper money The house financial committee has in its possession more than half a dozen bills to this effect besides some in the senate, and invitations were issued for a conference at Washington between the committees and bankers from New York and other large eastern cities As a New York contemporary rather sharply puts it "Who wants to hear any of their opinions now?" In point of fact resumption is already accomplished It is no longer a question of doubt or of expediency. Any further discussion in congress can only act as an irritant upon the popular mind, and a needless clog upon all kinds of business, as it would tend to destroy a fully aroused public confidence It would be well and politic on the part of mediocre senators and congressmen to curb their financial hobbies and devote themselves to matters within their comprehension. There is not much reason to fear any serious evil at their hands at this time but it would be far more wise and prudent to let such matters alone.

The Wool Market.

The first of the spring clip of wool has arrived from east of the Cascades and we expect from this forward to witness quite large receipts Buyers claim that prices are still 2@3 cents higher than the eastern markets will justify The opening price here is within the range of 18@22½ cents per pound but owing to the languishing condition of manufacturing interests at the east, it is claimed that the Pacific coast markets must go lower by the time the bulk of the clip comes forward The preparations to buy and handle are quite extensive and the movement during the season is expected to be active Commission merchants charge 2½ per cent for selling in this city or San Francisco Telegraphic reports from the latter city are meagre but latest mail advices show that market to be rather lower proportionately than our own, or that the Oregon product is regarded as much superior The latest San Francisco quotations have a very wide range, the lowest being 12 cts and the highest 25c, the latter being for very best lots offered. The bulk of sales yet made there are reported at 17@22c, which it will be seen is not as high as the local market when the freights, etc are considered. We do not intend to advance an opinion for the government of wool growers, but our latest information leads us to believe that high prices will not be obtained, though the present indications are that a rate much lower is hardly likely to be the rule Last year the Oregon crop was marketed in better shape than it has ever been before, and it will be for the pecuniary profit of the growers and in advancement of the country's reputation as a superior wool producing state if the progress made in that direction last year be kept up and continued to a still greater length The best information obtainable is to the effect that the product likely to be exported from this point the present year will not exceed that of 1877, which was near 3,000,000 lbs, much more than in any previous year.

English Crops and Markets.

LONDON, May 7.—The Mark Lane Express says farmers continue to market wheat very sparingly, in spite of the promising appearance of the growing crops, doubtless in the hope of obtaining better prices for reduced stocks still in their hands, should the market rise under the influence of possible war. English wheat advanced a shilling in many important provincial markets, but trade has disappointed the London faction, as sales have only been practical at former rates. Imports of foreign wheat into London have been fair the bulk of supply consisting of American and Russian descriptions, upon which the milling demand has principally turned during the last fortnight Of Calcutta wheat there is little remaining in our market. Sellers for delivery have shown a resolve, as this branch may be seriously affected by the rise which will doubtless occur in freights should the government continue to charter extensively for transport of troops from India.

Maize ruled steady for sound lots of new Corn was steady also for the limited stock still remaining of old, but the demand for cargoes on the passage and for shipment, was checked by fears regarding their condition, upon which the approach of warm weather has begun to tell nearly all cargoes that arrived off coast being damaged There is little substantial alteration in value of barley or oats but trade in feeding corn has been inanimate and prices eased slightly With moderate arrivals at ports of call the floating cargo trade for wheat is quiet and prices declined a shilling owing to fine weather and the more pacific aspect of political affairs. Maize advanced 9 pence for perfect cargoes which are scarce Barley scarce

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and Difficult Diseases,

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease, in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease mentally and physically, he has restored them to health and happiness, for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases Catarrh Bronchitis and all diseases of the throat and chest, by an entirely new system only known to himself, Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs including Spermatorrhea Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success, not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States Diseases of the stomach bowels liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of and never fails to give relief at once and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints and understands their delicate and refined organization, as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health over most physicians—he can tell the patients' disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual This accounts in part for his great professional success.

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand, and the patient need not fear the result.

will send to those living at a distance and who can not well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally and will forward the proper medicines, or instruments to any part of the country with full instructions and advice Each letter requiring advice or list of questions, must contain two postage stamps

Everything strictly confidential and honorable

THE DOCTOR

has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland, requiring medical treatment of the proper kind, who desire to consult with me, will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so called Doctors, through pretended friendship for the patients Look out for them, they are knaves prompted by selfish motives and what they can make Be sure and ask for DR PAUL M BRENAN, the Medical Lecturer and read his sign on his door

GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

The Cimbria's Nationality.

ELLSWORTH Me May 7.—In conversation with Capt Badenhausen of the Cimbria and Russian officers they were asked if they did not think they were in peril in case war is suddenly declared as British cruisers would be on the track. Capt Badenhausen [illegible] be [illegible] commander of a German ship under the German flag He said the deck of his ship was German territory which England would not dare to invade.

Fenians Getting Ready.

ST ALBANS Vt May 7.—The Advertiser learns from reliable source that the Fenian brotherhood of this section is getting into working order in view of the possibility of war between England and Russia

Franco-American Commercial Convention.

ST LOUIS, May 7.—M Leon Chatteau, delegate from France sent to this country to secure the co-operation of American merchants to a plan for a Franco American congress to assemble in Paris the coming summer for the purpose of fixing a basis for a Franco American treaty of commerce and effecting if possible a modification of the tariff on interchangeable commodities addressed a large number of members of the merchants exchange yesterday afternoon setting forth the object in view and urging the co-operation of the merchants of St Louis His address was warmly received, and President Bain of the merchants' exchange will appoint a committee to act in connection with committees already organized in Boston New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore Cincinnati and New Orleans, and the central committee at Washington, which is composed of influential members of congress and others M Chatteau left last night for Chicago and San Francisco.

Drafts Protested.

NEW YORK May 8 —Drafts for forty-eight thousand dollars and fifteen thousand dollars drawn by Elder & Co of Glasgow, Scotland, on Pacific Mail Steamship Company were protested yesterday the executive committee refusing payment The claim of Elder & Co grows out of a contract that existed a few years ago between this firm and the company for carrying the mails between Australia and the United States Elder & Co furnished three and the Pacific Mail Company two vessels, and the subsidies were divided in that proportion When the contract was ended the Pacific Mail Co claimed that Elder & Co owed a balance of $50,000 Since then the firm has paid $70,000 Recently President Clyde says Elder & Co claims to have discovered that the Pacific Mail Co is a debtor to them for $63,000, and they drew a draft on us through the Merchants' Bank of Canada in favor of the Clydesdale Banking Co of Glasgow. We do not recognize the validity of the claim and we declined to pay it.

Indians En Route.

BISMARCK, May 8 —The delegation of Nez Perces to induce members of the band with Sitting Bull to return to Indian territory, left to-day

Elections in Indiana.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 8 —The municipal election for the council stands Republicans 19, Democrats 16 a large Democratic gain. The Democrats and Nationals united in several wards. In other parts of the state the elections were more favorable to the Republicans

National Convention.

PHILADELPHIA May 8 —The national state convention was called to order in Concert hall this morning All the counties in the state, with a few exceptions, have full delegations. The number of delegates present is about 250 A delegation of women, representing the citizens' suffrage association, was on the floor at the opening of the proceedings. Chairman Dewees in his address, reviewed the condition of the party stating that from four thousand votes in 1876 it had increased to nearly 85 000 in 1877, and that with its thorough organization there was no reason that entire success should not be achieved in the next campaign

David Kirke was chosen temporary chairman In acknowledging the honor conferred he denounced the national banking system, claiming that the nation should honor its own paper

After the appointment of a committee on credentials the convention took a recess.

A Storm

Railroad Hands on a Strike.

ST LOUIS May 8 —A large number of laborers on the extension of the Chicago & Alton railroad between Mexico and Marshall Mo are on a strike. Several hundred of them are said to be congregated at Glasgow, where one of them was killed last Monday

Important Decision

OMAHA, May 8 —An important opinion was delivered by Judge Dundy this morning in the U S circuit court in the case of the Kansas Pacific and Denver Pacific Railroad vs the Union Pacific This suit is better known as the pro rata case After the declination of Judge Dillon to decide the so called pro rata case and after he had turned it over to the judge for decision, counsel for the Kansas Pacific entered an order in vacation discontinuing the cause thereupon the defendant moved to vacate and decided that inasmuch as the defendant had an interest in the determination of the question, it was not in the power of the plaintiff to dismiss it He then proceeded to dispose of the case on its merits, and held that the Denver under the legislation of congress, constituted a branch of the Union Pacific As to the claim of the Kansas Pacific to equal mileage rate on the business delivered by it to the Union Pacific at Cheyenne, he held such claim to be untenable and a right to charge a reasonable rate be [illegible] or determined by the increased cost of construction and operation of [illegible] the road west of Cheyenne [illegible] This decision is [illegible] the claim of the Kansas Pacific [illegible] which the Union Pacific has always maintained that in its [illegible] business [illegible] through [illegible] had the right to [illegible] Cheyenne a [illegible]
